Notice regarding Acquisition of a Factory Site in Miyagi Prefecture

We would like to express our deepest sympathies to everyone affected by the Great East Japan Earthquake and offer our prayers for the speediest possible recovery in the region.

Fukuda Denshi hereby announces that it has acquired an industrial site formerly owned by the Miyagi Prefecture Land Development Public Corporation with the intention of using it as one of its future production sites.

1. Objective of the Acquisition of the Factory Site

We have acquired the site as a production site in preparation for the expansion of the company's business in the future.

We will continue to promote elemental technologies and production technologies in the Fukuda Denshi Group and put into practice our corporate philosophy of "contributing to medical progress through the development of medical electronic equipment."

2. Acquisition Price

451 million yen (payment has already been completed)

3. Seller and Content of Acquisition

Seller: Miyagi Prefecture Land Development Public Corporation

Address of acquired site: No. 5 Techno Hills Taiwa-cho, Kurokawa-gun, Miyagi Prefecture

Area of acquired site: 22,060m²

The factory site acquired by Fukuda Denshi is in the Taiwa Research Park, which is adjacent to Sendai City, Miyagi Prefecture, just four kilometers from the Izumi interchange of the Tohoku Jukan Expressway, and located in a position that is able to withstand natural disasters well.

Three other companies in addition to Fukuda Denshi have already acquired sites in the park and are constructing factories on them.

4. Future Outlook

We will promptly disclose the scale of construction of the factory, the amount of capital investment, products that will be produced therein, when the construction will commence, when the production will commence, and other details regarding the planned utilization of the acquired factory site as soon as they become clear.
